Vote of Thanks by: Dr.S. Anuradha

The seminar was a great success and was attended by 50 participants. The opening speech was given by Principal Smt. V. Jyothi, who spoke about the importance of intellectual property rights (IPR) in the pharmaceutical industry. The keynote address was given by Dr. K. Sirisha, who spoke about the evolution of IPR laws and their impact on the pharmaceutical industry. The seminar was followed by a Q&A session, which was moderated by Dr.S. Anuradha.

The feedback from the participants was very positive. They said that they found the seminar to be informative and engaging. They also appreciated the opportunity to interact with Dr. K. Sirisha and learn from her expertise.

Overall, the seminar was a valuable learning experience for all participants. It provided them with a better understanding of IPR and its importance in the pharmaceutical industry.

I hope this report is helpful. Please let me know if you have any other questions.

SNVPMV successfully conducted a seminar titled "Seminar on Successful Experiences in IPR- Industry and Academia" on 12th October 2018 in the college auditorium. The seminar, organized by the Department of Chemistry, aimed to explore the practical aspects of intellectual property rights (IPR) in both industry and academic settings.

Keynote Address:

Dr. N. Lingaiah, a renowned expert from the Inorganic and Physical Chemistry Division of CSIR-IICT, graced the occasion as the keynote speaker. In his insightful address, Dr. Lingaiah shared valuable insights on the significance of IPR for fostering innovation and protecting intellectual property in the competitive world of research and development. He provided real-world examples of successful collaborations between industry and academia, highlighting the mutually beneficial outcomes achieved through effective IPR management. Following the keynote address, the floor was opened for an interactive Q&A session. Participants actively engaged with Dr. Lingaiah, seeking clarification on specific aspects of IPR and its application in their respective fields. The lively discussion fostered a deeper understanding of the complexities and nuances of IPR, enriching the learning experience for all attendees. The Principal, Smt. V. Jyothi, delivered the opening speech, emphasizing the crucial role of IPR in protecting the creativity and hard work of researchers and entrepreneurs. She commended the Department of Chemistry for organizing such an informative and timely seminar. Dr. S. Hemalatha, the coordinator, expressed her gratitude to all participants and speakers for their valuable contributions to the seminar's success.

REPORT ON SEMINAR ON METHODOLOGICAL ADVANCES IN ENTREPRENEURSHIP RESEARCH

Date: 11th December 2018

Venue: Auditorium, SNVPMV

Organized by: Department of Pharmacognosy

Speaker: Dr. Shanaz Bhanu, Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacognosy, Dayanand Sagar University, Bengaluru, India.

Coordinator: Mrs. Leemol Varghese

Number of Participants: 50

SNVPMV successfully conducted a two-day seminar on "Methodological Advances in Entrepreneurship Research" on December 11th and 12th, 2018. The seminar was organized by the Department of Pharmacognosy and aimed to equip students and faculty with the latest advancements in entrepreneurship research methodology.

Dr. Shanaz Bhanu, an esteemed Associate Professor from Dayanand Sagar University, Bengaluru, graced the occasion as the resource person. She delivered insightful lectures on various aspects of research methodology in entrepreneurship, including research design, data collection, analysis, and communication.

The seminar received an overwhelming response, with over 50 participants from various departments attending the sessions. The interactive sessions facilitated by Dr. Bhanu were highly engaging and informative, encouraging active participation and fostering a vibrant learning environment.

The seminar commenced with an opening speech by Smt. V. Jyothi, Principal of SNVPMV. In her address, she emphasized the importance of entrepreneurship research in the current scenario and lauded the Department of Pharmacognosy for organizing such a valuable program.

Mrs. Leemol Varghese, the coordinator of the seminar, flawlessly managed the entire event, ensuring its smooth execution. She delivered a heartfelt vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to Dr. Bhanu for her insightful lectures, the participants for their active presence, and the college management for providing the necessary support.

Overall, the seminar on "Methodological Advances in Entrepreneurship Research" was a resounding success. It provided participants with a comprehensive understanding of the latest research methods in entrepreneurship, fostering a spirit of innovation and entrepreneurial thinking.

Seminar on RESEARCH METHODOLOGY-A Conceptual Framework

Date: 22-02-2019, Venue: Auditorium, Organized by: Department of Pharmaceutics

Number of Participants: 50

Keynote Speaker: Dr. S. Hema Latha, Associate Professor, Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya, Tarnaka, Secunderabad

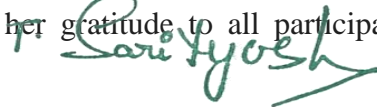

SNVPMV successfully conducted a seminar titled "Seminar on RESEARCH METHODOLOGY-A Conceptual Framework" on February 22nd, 2019, in the college auditorium. The seminar, spearheaded by the Department of Pharmaceutics, aimed to equip students and faculty with a strong foundation in research methodology, a critical skill for academic and professional success in the field of pharmacy.

Dr. S. Hema Latha, a renowned scholar from Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya, graced the occasion as the keynote speaker. In her insightful presentation, Dr. Latha demystified the concept of research methodology, unveiling its essential components and providing a roadmap for navigating the research process effectively. She covered topics such as:

- Conceptualizing research questions and hypotheses
- Selecting appropriate research designs
- Data collection and analysis techniques
- Scientific writing and reporting

Dr. Latha's engaging presentation, peppered with real-world examples and practical tips, resonated with the audience. Following her talk, an interactive Q&A session provided participants with the opportunity to clarify their doubts and seek further guidance on specific aspects of research methodology. The lively discussion fostered a deeper understanding of the subject matter and enriched the learning experience for all attendees.

Principal Smt. V. Jyothi delivered the opening speech, emphasizing the significance of research methodology in empowering students to become competent researchers and innovators in the pharmaceutical field. Dr. B. Keynote Speaker:

- Dr. M. Vijjulatha, Professor & HOD, Department of Chemistry, University College of Sciences, Osmania University, Tarnaka, Secunderabad.

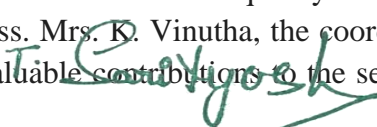

SNVPMV successfully conducted a seminar titled "Seminar on Key Aspects for Quality Research" on June 20th, 2019, in the college auditorium.

Dr. M. Vijjulatha, a renowned academic and scientist from Osmania University, graced the occasion as the keynote speaker. In her insightful presentation, Dr. Vijjulatha demystified the concept of quality research, outlining its fundamental principles and highlighting the essential elements that contribute to successful research endeavors. She covered:

- Identifying and formulating meaningful research questions
- Selecting appropriate research methodologies and protocols
- Maintaining rigorous data collection and analysis procedures
- Ethical considerations and responsible research practices
- Effective scientific writing and communication of research findings

Dr. Vijjulatha's presentation was engaging and interactive, peppered with real-world examples and practical tips from her own extensive research experience. She emphasized the importance of critical thinking, intellectual curiosity, and a strong work ethic in achieving research excellence.

Following the presentation, an engaging Q&A session provided participants with the opportunity to clarify their doubts and seek further guidance on specific aspects of research methodology and quality control. Principal Smt. V.Jyothi delivered the opening speech, emphasizing the crucial role of quality research in advancing scientific knowledge and contributing to societal progress. Mrs. K.
