Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Mahavidyalaya is a reputed institution that offers quality education in the field of pharmacy. The college has a team of experienced and qualified faculty members who impart theoretical and practical knowledge to the students. The college also provides various learning resources such as library, laboratory, computer centre, and seminar hall to enhance the learning experience of the students. The campus environment is conducive for academic excellence and personal growth. The Institution aims to evaluate its academic performance and ambiance through feedback from various stakeholders such as students, teachers, employers, and alumni, it needs a comprehensive and nuanced survey methodology. This approach ensures that the feedback is accurately captured and reflects the diverse perspectives of all groups involved. Here's a structured methodology to achieve this:

Stakeholder Groups: Students, Teachers, Alumni and Employers

Designed the Survey with Different sets of questions for each stakeholder group, focusing on the area's most relevant to their experience and perspective.

Students, Teacher's employers and Alumni Focused on Academic Performance and Ambiance and prepared questions. All questions across all surveys for benchmarking purposes, such as overall satisfaction.

STUDENT FEEDBACK

Circular

Dear Students,

Signature of the Employer

- We Collected feedback forms from Students, Teachers, Alumni and Employers' direct communication
- to encourage participation, in survey such as assurances of anonymity, we gave reminders through a Phone call and what s up messages .
- Analyze responses from each stakeholder group separately to understand their unique perspectives.
- Compare and contrast the feedback across groups to identify common themes and divergent views.
- Specifically look for gaps between the perceptions of different groups, such as between students and employers on employability skills.
- Stakeholder-Specific Reports: Prepared reports highlighting key findings and recommendations for each stakeholder group.
- Focused on providing actionable insights that can lead to tangible improvements in academic performance and ambiance.
- Share the findings and planned actions with all stakeholders to ensure transparency and foster a culture of continuous improvement.
- Action Plans: Develop and implement action plans based on the feedback, with specific timelines and responsible parties.
- Measure Impact: Plan follow-up surveys or other assessment methods to measure the impact of changes made.

This methodology emphasizes the importance of tailored questions for different stakeholder groups, thorough analysis, and actionable insights. By carefully designing and implementing the survey process, institutions can gain a comprehensive understanding of their academic performance and ambiance from those who know it best.
