

Seminar on career guidance

Venue: SNVPMV Auditorium

Date: 18/11/2023 at 11 am

Name of the Alumni student: Dr.Richa Diggikar

Office: Management trainee at Natco Pharma,

Banjara Hills, Hyd.

Alumni spotlight: Career Guidance in Pharmacy- insights from a Successful Graduate.

Guidance from alumni student provided valuable insights and advice to current students considering a pharmacy course. Given the various career paths available in Pharmacy such as community pharmacy, hospital pharmacy, pharmaceutical industry, regulatory affairs, work in an advisory capacity at different levels of government, conduct research in to new medications or become a pharmacy professor. Shared personal career choices and the factors that influenced them. Richa has emphasized the importance of gaining practical experience through internships and hands on training. She has explained insights in to how internships helped them apply theoretical knowledge in real world scenarios.

She has explained to Alumni students that, studying pharmacy enables you to develop skills specific to the role of a pharmacist including knowledge of facts and theories related to the design and manufacture of medicines. Students should have the ability to communicate effectively with health professionals, production of specific scientific documentation and ethical concerns relating to the supply of medicines and analysis of medicines. She has shared her knowledge, offering insights into the diverse career opportunities available to pharmacy graduates. Her talk was aimed at guiding students in making informed career choices in this dynamic field.

She has focused on

- Educational path
- Specializations in pharmacy
- Career opportunities
- Job market and job searching strategies
- Professional development
- Global perspective
- Personal experience

Students of M. Pharmacy, Pharm. D and B. Pharmacy actively participated in the seminar and also raised many questionnaires. The students gained knowledge on career selection and the study opportunities in abroad like Canada, Europe, United States of America and Australia. Conclusively vote of thanks is given by Alumni Secretary Mrs. Indira Rani. Finally the session was given immense knowledge has to be gained in career opportunities. Director Sir, principal madam, vice principal madam and other faculty members were attended.

