Time : 4:00 PM

Venue: Lobby, Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya

Agenda: National Voter's Day is celebrated on 25th January every year in India to encourage young voters to participate in the electoral process. The day was first observed in 2011 by the Election Commission of India (ECI) to mark its foundation day and to promote voter awareness and participation.

The program aimed to:

- Encourage eligible voters, especially the youth, to register and vote.
- Spread awareness about the importance of voting in a democracy.
- Ensure maximum electoral participation.
- Strengthen the democratic process by reducing voter apathy.

Theme of National Voter's Day:

Each year, the Election Commission announces a theme for the celebration. The theme for National Voter's Day 2025 was "Nothing Like Voting, I Vote for Sure", emphasizing the importance of voting as a civic duty.

Proceedings:

- Opening Ceremony:

The event began with a warm welcome speech by M Neha Pharm.D 4th-year student, who extended their gratitude to the dignitaries, students, and faculty for their presence. She provided a brief overview of the significance of the event and its theme—National Voters Day.

- Inviting Dignitaries:

The following dignitaries were invited to the stage:

- Dr. N. Srinivas, Director of the institution
- Dr. T. Mamatha, Principal of the institution
- Mr. D. Suresh, NSS Programme Officer

- Pledge Ceremony:

The voters pledge was led by K Chandana, with all participants standing in unity to affirm their commitment to community service and societal betterment.

- Keynote Addresses:

- Dr. N. Srinivas shared an insightful speech on the importance of civic engagement and voting rights.
- Dr. T. Mamatha Highlighted the electoral reforms, voter participation, and future initiatives.

- Mr. D. Suresh Delivered a speech on emphasizing the significance of voting and democracy.
- Student Presentations:
 - S Ravalika (Pharm.D 4th year) delivered a detailed presentation on Voters Day, highlighting about election system in India.
 - K Sravya shree (B.Pharm 4th year) spoke on Voters Day, discussing its importance of voting as a civic duty.

- Vote of Thanks :

The event concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by Mr. D.Suresh, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all attendees, dignitaries, and organizers for their active participation and contributions.

- Group Photograph:

A group photograph was taken at the end of the program to mark the occasion and celebrate the collective efforts of everyone involved.

- Conclusion:

National Voter's Day serves as a reminder that every vote matters in shaping the future of the nation. It reinforces the power of democracy and the responsibility of every citizen to contribute to the electoral process. By participating in elections, individuals help build a stronger, more inclusive, and representative democracy.

Adjournment: The meeting was adjourned at 5:00 PM
