CIRCULAR

Dear Faculty and Students,

Subject: Observance of World Day against Child Labour- SNVPMV.

We are pleased to inform you that Department of Pharmacognosy In Association with NSS Unit of SNVPMV will be observing World Day against Child Labour on 12th June at 3:00 P.M. in the SNVPMV campus.

This year's theme is "Progress is clear, but there's more to do: Let's speed up efforts", highlighting the importance of eliminating child labour and promoting education and protection for all children. The event aims to raise awareness about the issues surrounding child labour, its causes, and consequences.

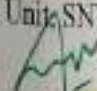

We invite all faculty members and students to join us in this observance and participate in the activities planned (Group Discussion & Seminar).

Let's work together to create a better future for all children.

We look forward to your participation.

Best regards,

From (Department of Pharmacognosy and In Association with NSS Unit, SNVPMV)

WORLD DAY AGAINST CHILD LABOUR REPORT 2025

THEME: “Progress is clear, but there’s more to do: Let’s speed up efforts” is the World Day Against Child Labour 2025 Theme. The theme for this year highlights the fact that millions of children are being exploited, despite the fact that many Nations have successfully decreased the number of child labour cases.”

Date of Seminar: 12th June 2025

Time: 3:00 PM

Target Audience: All Students

Venue: Classroom

Objective of the Seminar:

The primary objective of the seminar was to raise awareness about child labour, its causes, and consequences, and to explore ways to address and eliminate this issue.

Organized by: Department of Pharmacognosy and In Association with NSS Unit, SNVPMV.

Session Overview:

The seminar began at 3:00 PM with Nabihah Fatima of Pharm. D II year student welcoming the students and faculty members. She provided an overview of various aspects of child labour and the laws which have been implemented to eliminate child labour.

Ms. P. Sri Varsha, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmacognosy, then discussed the underlying principle effects of Child labour and what is the current situation regarding it. After this discussion, the students of Pharm D II years has explained the Child Labour in more depth with the help of presentation.

Madyalla Reva Pooja, Vudaru Harshini, and Aaisha Tabassum Pathan, described about the Child labour, its types, causes, Statistics, Regulation and Prohibition of Act, effect of Child labour, and how can we stop it.

Conclusion:

The seminar underscored the grave concern of child labour, which not only jeopardizes children's well-being, education, and future prospects but also perpetuates cycles of poverty and violates their fundamental rights. Although India and international organizations have established legal frameworks to combat child labour, effective elimination demands a comprehensive approach that includes rigorous enforcement, social support for vulnerable families, and holistic education initiatives.

Vote of Thanks: Ms. P. Sri Varsha and Mr. D. Suresh contributed to the discussion by answering students' queries and providing additional perspectives on “WORLD DAY AGAINST CHILD LABOUR”. Ms. P. Sri Varsha thanked the Faculty Coordinators: Dr. P. Ravi Kumar, Associate Professor and HOD, and Leemol Varghese, Sr. Assistant Professor Department of Pharmacognosy, Mr. D Suresh, NSS Program Officer, other faculty and students for their contribution and cooperation
