Guest Lecture Report

Organized by: Department of Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance in Association with: Institution's Innovation Council (IIC).

Date: 28th June 2025 (Saturday)

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: Auditorium, SNVPMV

Topic: Angel Investment & Venture Capital Funding Opportunity for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs

The Department of Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance, in association with the Institution Innovation Council (IIC) of Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Mahavidyalaya (SNVPMV), organized a guest lecture on “Angel Investment & Venture Capital Funding Opportunity for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs” on 28th June 2025. The session aimed to enlighten students on the importance of entrepreneurial thinking and the financial mechanisms available to support innovation during the early phases of a business venture.

Program Proceedings: The session commenced at 11:00 AM in the Seminar Hall.

The Program Coordinators were: Dr. S. Anuradha Bai, Professor & HOD, Dr. B. Siva Jyothi, Associate professor, Dr. R. Prasanthi, Assistant Professor and Ms. N. Rojaramanai, Assistant Professor.

The event was smoothly anchored by Ms. G. Nikitha, Ms. Bhavani Singh, and Ms. Deekshitha, who welcomed the gathering and introduced the dignitaries. The guests were respectfully invited onto the dais, followed by a soulful prayer song by Ms. Tanmai, setting an inspiring tone for the session.

The formal program began with a welcome address by Dr. N. Srinivas, Director, SNVPMV. He emphasized the importance of nurturing entrepreneurial qualities and understanding financial ecosystems in the evolving landscape of professional careers.

Following this, Dr. T. Mamatha, Principal, SNVPMV, appreciated the department's initiative and encouraged students to actively engage in such knowledge-enriching events.

Dr. R. Ashok Kumar, R&D Advisor, spoke about the critical role funding plays in transforming innovative ideas into viable startups, especially in pharma and healthcare domains.

Dr. B. Haarika, Vice Principal, highlighted the need for out-of-the-box thinking and motivated students to embrace entrepreneurship with confidence.

The guest speaker, Dr. Kota Satyanarayana, Executive Director of the Centre for Positive Learning, I Cube Nanotech India, Noida, was introduced with a brief account of his extensive experience in startup mentoring, innovation management, and entrepreneurial leadership.

Dr. Kota Satyanarayana delivered a thought-provoking and comprehensive lecture on “Angel Investment & Venture Capital Funding Opportunity for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs.”

Key highlights from his session included:

Differences between angel investors and venture capitalists

Understanding the funding lifecycle and business growth stages

Essentials of crafting and delivering an impactful investor pitch

The role of innovation, market analysis, and risk management

Opportunities for pharmacy and healthcare professionals in India's startup ecosystem

He supplemented his talk with real-life case studies, success stories, and practical guidance, inspiring students to explore entrepreneurship as a meaningful and achievable career path.

As a token of gratitude, Dr. Kota Satyanarayana was felicitated with a shawl, bouquet, and memento by the organizing committee, in appreciation of his valuable time and insightful presentation.

The vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. S. Anuradha Bai, Professor & Head, Department of Pharmaceutical Quality Assurance. She expressed her heartfelt appreciation to the speaker, dignitaries, faculty, and students for their active involvement and for making the session a grand success.

The program concluded with the National Anthem, reinforcing a collective sense of pride and purpose. The guest lecture was highly impactful, successfully enhancing the entrepreneurial mindset among participants. It broadened the students' understanding of funding possibilities and empowered them to consider innovation-driven career paths.

Outcome of the Seminar

The guest lecture on “Angel Investment & Venture Capital Funding Opportunity for Early-Stage Entrepreneurs” proved to be a highly informative and inspiring session for the students and faculty of Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Mahavidyalaya.

A total of 20 faculty members and 130 students from M. Pharmacy, B. Pharmacy, and Pharm D programs attended the seminar. The session witnessed active participation, enthusiastic interaction, and insightful queries from the students.

The Seminar successfully achieved its objectives and resulted in the following outcomes:

- Enhanced Entrepreneurial Awareness: Students gained a clear understanding of how angel investors and venture capitalists contribute to the growth of startups, especially during their initial stages.
- Exposure to Funding Mechanisms: Attendees became familiar with the funding lifecycle, types of investors, and the importance of financial planning in business development.
- Skill Development: The session helped students understand how to pitch ideas effectively, assess market needs, and manage risk—skills crucial for any aspiring entrepreneur.
- Motivation to Innovate: Real-life examples and case studies shared by the speaker inspired students to think creatively and pursue entrepreneurial ventures aligned with their pharmacy and healthcare education.
- Strengthened Institutional Objectives: The seminar aligned with the goals of the Institution Innovation Council (IIC) by promoting startup culture, innovation, and self-reliance among students.
