The dignitaries were invited onto the dais. The esteemed dignitaries present on the occasion were:

- Dr. B. Prabha Shankar, Chairman, SNVPMV
- Smt. Sandhya Depala, Hon. Treasurer
- Sri Chandrajeet Singh, Hon. Joint Secretary
- Dr. A.V. Srikanth, Governing Body Member
- Dr. N. Srinivas, Director, SNVPMV
- Dr. T. Mamatha, Principal, SNVPMV
- Dr. B. Haarika, Vice Principal, SNVPMV

The highlight of the morning was the Flag Hoisting Ceremony, where the National Flag was unfurled with great honor by Pharm.D IV-year students of SNVPMV. As the tri-colour ascended proudly into the sky, the entire gathering joined in singing the National Anthem with deep reverence, filling the atmosphere with patriotic spirit.

Dignitary Addresses

Following the flag hoisting, all the dignitaries addressed the gathering with inspiring speeches that highlighted the significance of independence, unity, and national responsibility.

- Dr. B. Prabha Shankar, Chairman, recalled the sacrifices of countless freedom fighters and stressed the importance of discipline, unity, and integrity among youth.
- Smt. Sandhya Depala, Hon. Treasurer, emphasized the value of education and women's empowerment as key drivers of India's progress.
- Sri Chandrajeet Singh, Hon. Joint Secretary, encouraged students to imbibe patriotism in their everyday actions and reminded them that small acts of responsibility contribute to nation-building.
- Dr. A.V. Srikanth, Governing Body Member, highlighted the importance of research, innovation, and collaboration in strengthening the pharmaceutical field and thereby serving the country.

- Dr. N. Srinivas, Director, inspired the students to balance knowledge with values, stressing that true independence comes when citizens practice equality, honesty, and respect in society.
- Dr. T. Mamatha, Principal, reminded students that independence is a continuous responsibility. She motivated them to strive for intellectual, social, and moral progress, while also excelling academically.
- Dr. B. Haarika, Vice Principal, spoke about the role of youth in shaping a self-reliant India, encouraging them to adopt innovation and leadership in their careers.

The collective speeches underlined that freedom is not only about raising the national flag, but also about carrying forward the ideals of justice, equality, and fraternity that our freedom fighters lived and died for.

A memorable highlight was a poetic recital by Dr. Ravi Kumar, HOD of Pharmacognosy, which beautifully captured the spirit of patriotism and paid tribute to freedom fighters. Additionally, a B. Pharm 3rd-year student sang a soulful patriotic song, which resonated with the audience and filled them with pride.

The words of Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru were also recalled:

“A moment comes, which comes but rarely in history, when we step out from the old to the new...”

These words served as a reminder that while India gained independence in 1947, the journey of building a stronger and progressive nation continues with each passing generation.

NSS Participation

The NSS Unit of SNVPMV also actively took part in the celebration, adding a special dimension of service and responsibility. The programme began with the NSS Programme Officer, Mr. D. Suresh, extending warm greetings to the gathering and highlighting the significance of national campaigns such as Har Ghar Tiranga and Nasha Mukth Bharat Abhiyan, emphasizing their role in promoting unity and building a healthier society.
