NSS UNIT – REPORT ON PANEL ELECTIONS (2025–26)

Date of Event: 26th July 2025

Venue: IQAC Cell, SNVPMV

Time: 10:00 AM to 12:30 PM

The National Service Scheme (NSS) Unit of Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya (SNVPMV) successfully conducted the NSS Panel Elections on Saturday, 26th July 2025, in the IQAC Cell of the institution. These elections were conducted to elect a new student panel for the academic year 2025–26 to lead, organize, and manage the various NSS activities and outreach programs in alignment with the objectives of NSS.

Objective of the Elections

The core aim of conducting this student election was to build leadership qualities, foster a spirit of teamwork and responsibility, and promote active democratic participation among NSS volunteers. Student leaders selected through this transparent and participative process are expected to support the smooth and successful execution of social and community activities throughout the year.

Participation and Voting Process

Out of the 108 active NSS volunteers enrolled for the 2025–26 academic session, 87 students participated in the election process. The voting was carried out through a manual ballot-based system. The polling was conducted from 10:00 AM to 12:30 PM, during which each student was provided with a ballot paper to cast their vote for the designated posts.

A dedicated election committee including NSS Programme Officers and faculty representatives supervised the entire process to ensure fairness, confidentiality, and transparency. After the completion of voting, the counting of votes was done in the presence of observers, and the results were announced on the same day.

Way Forward

The newly elected NSS student panel is expected to:

- Represent student voices in planning social initiatives
- Encourage active participation among all volunteers
- Ensure inclusive and effective community development programs
- Maintain transparency and discipline in all activities
- Act as role models for discipline, service, and teamwork

The NSS Programme Officers and faculty mentors will extend full support to the panel, guiding them to meet the expectations of the NSS objectives while aligning their actions with the values of Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya.

Conclusion

The NSS Panel Elections for the academic year 2025–26 were conducted successfully, marking a new chapter in student engagement and community service at SNVPMV. The impressive participation and smooth conduct of the election reflect the unity, enthusiasm, and dedication of our student volunteers.

We congratulate all the elected members and wish them success in their journey of service, leadership, and social commitment.
