With Initiation of OU-ISKCON, Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya (Co-Ed) Organized an Elocution Competition on 18th October 2025 in the Auditorium. The program aimed to provide students with a platform to showcase their public speaking skills and share their thoughts on theme “Kill The Cancer” as part of its Cancer Prevention Campaign.

The event also intended to foster intellectual curiosity, awareness about values promoted through ISKCON activities.

The elocution competition commenced with a heartfelt welcome address by Ayesha, a Pharm D III year student, who underscored the significance of creating awareness about cancer before it wreaks havoc on our lives. The audience, comprising students and faculty members, was urged to attentively listen and glean insights from the varied viewpoints presented by the participants.

As part of the IPA National Elocution Competition, a preliminary round was conducted at Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya on the theme “Think Health, Think Pharmacists – One Profession, Many Roles.” The event aimed to highlight the diverse and indispensable roles played by pharmacists in promoting public health, ensuring safe medication use, and advancing the healthcare system.

A total of 11 participants from various classes enthusiastically took part in the competition, expressing their views on the significance of pharmacists in different healthcare domains such as research, clinical practice, community service, and pharmaceutical industry. The participants showcased commendable communication skills, confidence, and depth of understanding of the theme.

After careful evaluation by the panel of judges, Ms. Nomitha Byreddy was declared the winner of the preliminary round and was selected to represent the college at the State-level round of the competition.
