Report on “ Intra Sports competition for NPW

Theme: Pharmacist as Advocates of Vaccination

Date of Screening: 14 November 2025

Event Venue: SNVPMV Grounds & Gymnasium

As part of the National Pharmacy Week (NPW) 2025 celebrations, Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya successfully organized its annual Sports Screening Event on 14th November 2025, conducted with the primary objective of promoting physical fitness, sportsmanship, and healthy competition among students. The event was aligned with this year's NPW theme, “Pharmacist as Advocates of Vaccination,” reinforcing the importance of holistic health and community involvement.

The event took place at the SNVPMV Grounds and Indoor Sports Complex, where arrangements were made to conduct Throwball, Badminton, Table Tennis, and Volleyball screening matches. The Sports Committee ensured that all activities were conducted fairly and efficiently.

Participation Overview

A remarkable number of students participated with great enthusiasm, demonstrating the sporting culture of the institution:

1. Throwball (Girls) – 28 Participants

Throwball witnessed an energetic participation with 28 girls taking part in the screening rounds. The players displayed strong coordination, consistent passes, and excellent teamwork. Several matches were conducted in league format to identify the top players based on skill, communication, serve strength, and overall game performance.

2. Badminton – 82 Participants (Girls & Boys)

Badminton received the highest participation with 82 students, making it the most competitive category. Matches were conducted in singles and doubles formats across multiple courts. Students exhibited competitive spirit, quick reflexes, strategic smashes, and strong footwork throughout the screening rounds.

3. Table Tennis (Girls) – 8 Participants

The Table Tennis screening saw 8 passionate girl participants, each showcasing precision and focus. The games were held in a knockout format, and scoring was monitored carefully by student volunteers and faculty coordinators.

4. Boys Screening – Volleyball & Badminton – 14 Participants

A total of 14 boys participated in Volleyball and Badminton. The Volleyball screening highlighted the students' teamwork, agility, blocking skills, and quick on-ground communication. Boys' badminton was equally competitive, with fast-paced rallies and strong attacking shots.

Event Supervision and Committee Involvement

The success of the screening event is attributed to the guidance and dedication of the Sports Committee, which included:

- Dr. Y. Surender – Physical Director
- Mr. D. Suresh – Sports Incharge
- Mr. Sandeep
- Dr. Rohini
- Dr. Sujala
- Ms. Divya

Each committee member contributed significantly to planning match schedules, monitoring participant safety, ensuring fair play, and coordinating with volunteers.

Student Volunteers & Leadership

The event was supported by a strong student volunteer team, consisting of 18 student volunteers and 16 additional student helpers. The leadership of Ms. Gowthami and Ms. Sreeja, the designated student incharges, was instrumental in coordinating fixtures, maintaining discipline, managing equipment, recording scores, and ensuring the timely execution of each match.

Their collective effort contributed to a smooth, disciplined, and professionally managed sports event.

Final Selections

After reviewing performance, teamwork, discipline, and skill, the following final selections were made:

- Throwball (Girls): 10 students selected
- Badminton: 2 students selected

These selected students will proudly represent the institution at the National Pharmacy Week Sports Meet at Gokaraju Rangaraju College of Pharmacy on 19 November 2025.

Conclusion

The NPW 2025 Sports Screening Event emerged as a successful and memorable occasion, encouraging students to display their talents, build confidence, and engage in physical activity. The event highlighted the college's commitment to fostering holistic student development. The enthusiastic participation of students, combined with the dedicated efforts of faculty and volunteers, ensured a disciplined and joyful sporting environment.

The Sports Committee extended its appreciation to all participants, volunteers, and faculty who contributed to the smooth organization of the event. SNVPMV looks forward to continued participation and excellence in the upcoming intercollegiate events.
