Location: SNVPMV Auditorium

Time: 3.00 PM to 4.30 PM

Organised by : Fine arts and creativity club

Event Coordinators:

faculty : Mrs.Ritu Jain, Ms.N.Rojaramani

Students : Ms. Layeeqa khan, Afnaan syed

Activity Overview

The Fine Arts Club organized a set of creative and intellectually stimulating activities aimed at enhancing artistic skills, logical thinking, and team bonding among students. The activities conducted were Sand Painting, a Mind Game, and a fun interactive game titled "Wrong Answers Only." These activities provided a perfect blend of creativity, mental engagement, and entertainment.

1. Sand painting activity

Objective:

To encourage creativity, patience, and artistic expression by allowing participants to create designs using colored sand.

Materials Used:

- sand
- Drawing sheets / boards
- Glue
- Sketch pencils

Activity Description:

Participants were instructed to create artistic designs using colored sand. They first sketched outlines and then carefully filled them with sand to produce visually appealing artwork. The activity required focus, precision, and creativity. Participants explored various themes such as nature, patterns, and abstract designs.

Outcomes and Observations

- ✓ Participants displayed excellent creativity and attention to detail.
- ✓ The activity enhanced concentration and fine motor skills.
- ✓ The environment was calm and artistic, encouraging self-expression.

2. Mind game

Objective

To enhance logical thinking, problem-solving skills, and mental alertness among participants.

Materials Used

- Printed puzzles / questions
- White board and markers

Activity Description:

Participants were engaged in various mind games such as riddles, logical puzzles, and brain teasers. The games were conducted individually and in groups, encouraging discussion and collaborative thinking. Students actively participated and enjoyed solving challenging questions within a limited time.

Outcomes and observation:

- ✓ Participants showed enthusiasm and sharp thinking abilities.
- ✓ The activity improved reasoning skills and teamwork.
- ✓ Healthy competition motivated students to perform better.

3. Fun Game – “Wrong Answers Only”

Objective

To promote fun, spontaneity, creativity, and stress relief through a light-hearted interactive game.

Activity Description

In this game, participants were asked simple general questions, but they were instructed to give only wrong answers. The unexpected and humorous responses created a lively atmosphere filled with laughter. The game encouraged quick thinking and creativity while keeping the mood cheerful and relaxed.

Outcomes and Observations

- ✓ The activity created joy, laughter, and active participation.
- ✓ Students enjoyed thinking creatively under pressure.
- ✓ It helped in stress relief and strengthened bonding among participants.
