VIRTUAL CAMPUS DRIVE REPORT- ALEMBIC PHARMACEUTICALS LTD

Date: 15th April 2026

Time: 10:00 A.M. onwards

Venue: SNVPMV Auditorium

Participants: 42 Students of B. Pharm. Final Year.

Selected Candidates: 5 Students

A virtual recruitment drive by Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited was successfully conducted at Sarojini Naidu Vanitha Maha Vidhyalaya Co-Ed. (SNVPMV) with the objective of providing career opportunities in the pharmaceutical sector and strengthening industry–academia collaboration through an online platform.

The event commenced with a warm virtual welcome extended to Mr. Nitin Malke, HR Professional of Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited by Dr. N. Srinivas, HOD-RA and Placement Officer. During his address, Dr. N. Srinivas highlighted the evolving role of Medical Representatives in the current healthcare scenario, emphasizing their importance in bridging the gap between pharmaceutical companies and healthcare professionals, promoting ethical practices, and adapting to digital engagement strategies. The proceedings were conducted in a well-organized manner, reflecting the academic excellence and professionalism of the institution.

Nitin Malke of Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited delivered an informative session, providing an overview of the company's legacy, growth, and presence in the pharmaceutical industry. He also briefed the students on the role of Medical Representatives in the current scenario, highlighting their responsibilities in promoting products, building strong relationships with healthcare professionals, achieving sales targets, and adapting to evolving digital and ethical marketing practice

He also explained the salary structure, incentives, and various allowances offered to Medical Representatives. He highlighted that top performers are recognized with attractive benefits, including opportunities for foreign visits, thereby motivating students to excel in their professional careers.

Selection Process: A total of 42 students, primarily from the B.Pharm VIII Semester, actively registered for the drive. Among them, 16 students appeared for the personal interviews conducted through a virtual platform.

Outcome: The virtual recruitment drive by Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited resulted in enhanced career opportunities for participating students, with shortlisted candidates progressing in the selection process. The drive provided valuable exposure to virtual recruitment practices, improved students' confidence in interviews, and strengthened their understanding of industry expectations, particularly for the role of Medical Representatives. It also reinforced the institute's collaboration with the pharmaceutical industry, paving the way for future engagements.

Impact: The virtual Medical Representative recruitment drive by Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited created a significant impact on students by enhancing their awareness of career opportunities in pharmaceutical sales and marketing. It helped students develop a clearer understanding of the roles, responsibilities, and expectations of Medical Representatives in the current healthcare landscape. The interaction with HR professional of Alembic improved students' communication and interview skills, while exposure to virtual hiring processes increased their adaptability to digital recruitment methods.

Conclusion: The virtual recruitment drive by Alembic Pharmaceuticals Limited was successfully conducted, achieving its objective of connecting students with industry opportunities. Out of the 16 candidates who attended the virtual interviews, 5 students were successfully selected, marking a commendable outcome. The drive not only contributed to the institution's placement record but also enhanced students' readiness for careers as Medical Representatives.
