1. Introduction

Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya (Co-Ed.), Hyderabad, celebrated the 80th Independence Day of India with great patriotic fervour and enthusiasm on 15th August 2026. The programme commenced at 10:00 A.M. on the college premises.

The celebration was organized to commemorate India's independence and to instil among students a sense of patriotism, national responsibility, unity, discipline and pride in the nation's achievements. The programme brought together the management, dignitaries, faculty members, staff and students in a spirit of national unity.

The event was presided over by Dr. B. Prabha Shankar, Chairman, SNVPMV, in the presence of the Honorary Secretary, Treasurer, Governing Body Member, Director, Principal, Vice Principal, faculty members and students.

2. Proceedings of the Programme

2.1 Welcome and Anchoring

The programme was anchored by Dr. T. Venu, Head, Department of Pharmacology, who welcomed the dignitaries, faculty members, staff and students.

Dr. T. Venu introduced the significance of Independence Day and highlighted the responsibility of educational institutions in nurturing responsible, ethical and socially conscious citizens. He also briefed the gathering about the sequence of events and invited the dignitaries to participate in the celebrations.

Anchor Speech – Dr. T. Venu

“Respected Chairman Dr. B. Prabha Shankar Garu, Honorary Secretary Sri B. Hanumanth Rao Garu, Honorary Treasurer Smt. Sandhya Depala Garu, Governing Body Member Dr. A. V. Srikanth Garu, esteemed faculty members, non-teaching staff and my dear students.

A very warm and patriotic welcome to all of you to the Independence Day Celebrations of Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya.

Today, we gather with immense pride to celebrate the freedom of our great nation. Independence Day is not merely a day of celebration; it is a reminder of the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters and of the responsibilities that come with being citizens of a free nation.

3. Vande Mataram

The formal proceedings began with a soulful rendition of “Vande Mataram” by the B.Pharmacy students.

The performance created a strong patriotic atmosphere and reflected the students' respect and love for the motherland. The audience appreciated the students for their enthusiastic and inspiring presentation.

4. Address by the Chairman – Dr. B. Prabha Shankar

The Chairman, Dr. B. Prabha Shankar, addressed the gathering and conveyed his Independence Day greetings to all.

Chairman's Speech

Independence is one of the greatest achievements in the history of our nation. The freedom that we enjoy today was earned through the sacrifices, courage and determination of countless freedom fighters.

As we celebrate our nation's freedom, we should also remember that freedom comes with responsibility. Every citizen has a role in the development of the country. As students of pharmacy, you have an even greater responsibility because your future profession is directly connected with the health and well-being of society.

I encourage our students to pursue excellence in education, research, innovation and professional practice while maintaining honesty, discipline and compassion.

I am pleased to see the enthusiasm of our students and faculty in celebrating this important national occasion. I congratulate everyone involved in organizing today's programme and wish our institution continued success in its journey of academic and professional excellence.

Jai Hind!"

5. Address by the Honorary Secretary – Sri B. Hanumanth Rao

The Honorary Secretary, Sri B. Hanumanth Rao, addressed the gathering and extended his Independence Day wishes to the entire SNVPMV family.

Secretary's Speech

It gives me immense pleasure to be part of this Independence Day celebration.

Independence Day reminds us of the extraordinary journey of our nation and the sacrifices made by generations before us. The responsibility of carrying forward the progress of our country now rests with the younger generation.

Educational institutions have a vital role in this process. Education should create individuals who possess knowledge, character, discipline and a strong sense of social responsibility.

I am happy to see our students participating enthusiastically in today's programme. I congratulate the faculty members and organizers for creating an atmosphere that combines patriotism, education and student talent.

Let us all work together for the continued development of our institution and for the progress of our nation.

I wish everyone a very Happy Independence Day.

Jai Hind!"

6. Address by the Treasurer – Smt. Sandhya Depala

The Treasurer, Smt. Sandhya Depala, conveyed her greetings and spoke about the importance of education, values and responsible citizenship.

Treasurer's Speech

It is a matter of great happiness to participate in this Independence Day celebration.

Our country has progressed tremendously in various fields, and the youth of India are at the centre of this transformation. Students should make effective use of the opportunities available to them and develop themselves not only academically but also personally and socially.

The pharmacy profession provides an opportunity to directly contribute to public health. I encourage our students to become professionals who combine knowledge with ethics and service.

Let us remember the sacrifices of our freedom fighters and ensure that our actions contribute positively to our society and nation.

I extend my warm Independence Day greetings to everyone.

Jai Hind!"

7. Address by Governing Body Member – Sri A. V. Srikanth

Sri A. V. Srikanth, Governing Body Member, addressed the gathering and spoke about the growth of the institution, student development and the importance of effective leadership.

Speech – Sri A. V. Srikanth

On this proud occasion of Independence Day, I extend my warm greetings to the entire SNVPMV family.

An institution progresses when its management, faculty, staff and students work together with a common vision. Our institution has been progressing continuously in academics, accreditation, research, student development and professional education.

Today is also a significant occasion for our institution as we recognize new leadership responsibilities. I am confident that our newly appointed leadership team will take the institution forward with dedication, innovation and commitment.

I congratulate all the students participating in today's cultural performances and other activities. Your talent, discipline and enthusiasm are a reflection of the vibrant culture of our institution.

Let us continue to work together for academic excellence and for the development of socially responsible pharmacy professionals.

Happy Independence Day to all. Jai Hind!"

8. Announcement of New Appointments

Following his address, Dr. B. Prabha Shankar, Governing Body Member, formally announced the new appointments and leadership responsibilities in the institution:

- Dr. B. Haarika – Principal
- Dr. K. Neelima – Vice Principal
- Dr. N. Srinivas – Director, Corporate Affairs, Admissions & Placements

The announcements were warmly received by the gathering, and the dignitaries and members of the institution congratulated the newly designated office bearers.

The new leadership responsibilities were viewed as an important step towards strengthening the academic, administrative, corporate relations, admissions and placement activities of the institution.

9. Address by the Director – Dr. N. Srinivas

Following the announcement, Dr. N. Srinivas, Director, Corporate Affairs, Admissions & Placements, addressed the gathering.

Director's Speech

First of all, I express my sincere gratitude to the management for entrusting me with the responsibility of Director – Corporate Affairs, Admissions and Placements.

This responsibility is both an honour and a commitment. Our focus will be on strengthening the relationship between the institution and the corporate sector, creating meaningful opportunities for students, enhancing placement avenues, strengthening admissions and building productive collaborations.

Our students should be prepared not only to obtain degrees but also to face the expectations of the pharmaceutical industry and the healthcare sector. Industry exposure, internships, skill development, communication, innovation and professional ethics will remain important areas of focus.

I seek the cooperation of every faculty member and student in achieving these objectives.

On this Independence Day, let us also remember that our professional success becomes meaningful when it contributes to the development of society and our nation.

I congratulate everyone on this proud occasion.

Jai Hind!"

10. Address by the Principal – Dr. B. Haarika

The newly appointed Principal, Dr. B. Haarika, addressed the gathering and expressed her gratitude to the management while outlining her vision for the institution.

Principal's Speech

It is a privilege and a responsibility to assume the role of Principal of this esteemed institution.

I sincerely thank the management and Governing Body for placing their confidence in me. I look forward to working closely with all members of the SNVPMV family.

Our institution has a strong academic foundation and a rich legacy. My vision is to further strengthen academic excellence, research, innovation, student-centric learning, professional development and industry interaction.

Every student should be given opportunities to discover their strengths, develop their skills and become confident professionals. At the same time, discipline, ethics, empathy and social responsibility must remain central to education.

I assure you that I will work with commitment and transparency and seek the cooperation of the entire faculty, staff and student community.

Let us together take SNVPMV to greater heights.

I once again wish everyone a very Happy Independence Day.

Jai Hind!"

11. Cultural Performances by B.Pharmacy and M.Pharmacy Students

The formal addresses were followed by an energetic and colourful cultural programme presented by the B.Pharmacy and M.Pharmacy students.

Students participated enthusiastically in various performances, showcasing their talents through patriotic and cultural presentations. Both boys and girls from B.Pharmacy and M.Pharmacy took part in the programme.

The performances reflected the students' creativity, teamwork, confidence and patriotic spirit. The audience applauded the participants and appreciated their efforts in making the Independence Day celebration vibrant and memorable.

12. Address by the Vice Principal – Dr. K. Neelima

Following the cultural programme, Dr. K. Neelima, Vice Principal, addressed the gathering.

Vice Principal's Speech

It is a great honour to be part of this Independence Day celebration.

Today is a day to remember the sacrifices of our freedom fighters and to reflect upon our responsibilities as citizens. For students, true patriotism is reflected not only in celebrating national occasions but also through discipline, hard work, respect for others, honesty and service to society.

I congratulate our students for their wonderful cultural performances and active participation in today's programme.

I am particularly happy that we are also recognizing students who participated in the Drug Abuse Awareness Activity. Their participation demonstrates their commitment towards creating awareness about one of the important social and public health challenges facing our society.

As pharmacy students and future healthcare professionals, you have a special role in promoting the rational and responsible use of medicines and creating awareness about the harmful consequences of drug abuse.

I encourage every student to participate actively in academic, research, extension and social responsibility activities.

Let us all pledge to become responsible professionals and responsible citizens who contribute meaningfully to the progress of our nation.

I wish everyone a very Happy Independence Day.

Jai Hind!"

13. Certificate Distribution – Drug Abuse Awareness Activity

The programme continued with the distribution of certificates to students who participated in the Drug Abuse Awareness Activity.

The certificates recognized the students' active participation and contribution towards creating awareness about drug abuse and its harmful effects on individuals, families and society.

The dignitaries appreciated the students for their social responsibility and encouraged them to continue participating in public-health awareness programmes and community-oriented activities.

14. Vote of Thanks – Dr. K. Neelima

The programme concluded with the Vote of Thanks proposed by Dr. K. Neelima, Vice Principal.

Vote of Thanks Speech

“Respected Chairman Dr. B. Prabha Shankar Garu, Honorary Secretary Sri B. Hanumanth Rao Garu, Treasurer Smt. Sandhya Depala Garu, Governing Body Member Sri A. V. Srikanth Garu, Director Dr. N. Srinivas Garu, Principal Dr. B. Haarika Garu, respected faculty members, staff and dear students.

It is my privilege to propose the vote of thanks on this memorable occasion.

First and foremost, I express my sincere gratitude to our respected Chairman, Dr. B. Prabha Shankar Garu, for gracing the occasion and for his inspiring words and continued guidance.

I extend my heartfelt thanks to our Honorary Secretary, Sri B. Hanumanth Rao Garu, Treasurer Smt. Sandhya Depala Garu and Governing Body Member Sri A. V. Srikanth Garu for their valuable presence, encouragement and support.

I sincerely thank our Director, Dr. N. Srinivas Garu, and our Principal, Dr. B. Haarika Garu, for their valuable guidance and leadership.

I also appreciate the efforts of Dr. T. Venu, Head of the Department of Pharmacology, for anchoring and coordinating the programme effectively.

My special appreciation goes to all the faculty members, non-teaching staff and student coordinators whose collective efforts contributed to the successful organization of today's celebration.

I congratulate all the B.Pharmacy and M.Pharmacy students who participated in the cultural performances and made the programme lively and memorable.

I also congratulate all the students who received certificates for their participation in the Drug Abuse Awareness Activity. Your efforts towards social awareness are truly commendable.

Finally, I thank every member of the SNVPMV family for being a part of this celebration.

Let us carry forward the spirit of freedom, unity, responsibility and service in our personal, professional and social lives.

15. Conclusion

The Independence Day Celebrations at Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya concluded on a patriotic and inspiring note. The programme successfully combined national pride, institutional leadership, student talent, cultural expression and social responsibility.

The event also marked an important moment in the institution's administrative journey with the announcement of the new leadership responsibilities of Dr. B. Haarika as Principal, Dr. K. Neelima as Vice Principal, and Dr. N. Srinivas as Director – Corporate Affairs, Admissions & Placements.

The participation of students in cultural performances and the recognition of students involved in the Drug Abuse Awareness Activity demonstrated the institution's commitment to holistic education, student engagement and social responsibility.

The celebration concluded with the collective spirit of “Jai Hind”, reaffirming the commitment of the SNVPMV community towards academic excellence, professional ethics, social responsibility and the progress of the nation.
