This is to inform all the honourable Management Members, Teaching Staff, Non-Teaching Staff, and Students that our institution is organizing Saraswathi Pooja, Bathukamma Celebrations and Dandiya Night at the campus premises.

Saraswathi Pooja is celebrated to seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswathi, the deity of knowledge, wisdom, learning and creativity. Bathukamma is a beautiful symbol of Telangana's rich cultural heritage, traditions, and nature worship. To honour these cultural traditions, special events including Saraswathi Pooja, traditional floral arrangements, Bathukamma songs and Dandiya will be organized.

Objective of the Event:

To seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswathi for knowledge, wisdom, academic excellence and success among the student community.

To preserve and promote the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and regional identity of Telangana among the student community.

To foster a sense of unity, inclusivity, and harmony by bringing management, staff, and students together in collective celebration.

To appreciate nature by honouring the seasonal, medicinal flowers used in the festival, encouraging environmental consciousness.

Outcomes:

Knowledge and Spiritual Awareness: Students and staff will develop a greater appreciation for the importance of knowledge, wisdom, learning and the cultural significance of Saraswathi Pooja.

Cultural Awareness: Students and staff will gain a deeper understanding of regional folklore, traditional arts, and festival values.

Community Bonding: The event will strengthen interpersonal relationships and team spirit across different departments and administrative levels.

All members of the management, faculty, staff, and students are cordially invited and strongly encouraged to actively participate with enthusiasm, seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswathi, stack colourful seasonal flowers, and make these celebrations a grand success.

Let us join hands to bring the festive spirit alive on our campus!

REPORT ON SARASWATHI POOJA-BATHUKAMMA CELEBRATIONS AND DANDIYA NIGHT

Organised by: Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry

Institution: Sarojini Naidu Vanitha Pharmacy Mahavidyalaya (Co-Ed)

1.Program Overview

Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya (Co-Ed.), sponsored by The Exhibition Society, organized Saraswathi pooja- Bathukamma Celebrations and Dandiya Night on the college campus to promote the rich cultural heritage and traditions of Telangana. The programme brought together management members, teaching and non-teaching staff, and students in a spirit of unity, inclusiveness, and cultural harmony.

The celebrations highlighted the significance of Bathukamma as a vibrant floral festival associated with nature worship and Telangana's cultural identity. Traditional floral arrangements, Bathukamma songs, and festive activities provided an opportunity for participants to appreciate regional customs, traditional practices, and the beauty of seasonal flowers. The Dandiya celebration further encouraged enthusiastic participation and strengthened interpersonal relationships among the college community.

The programme aimed to create a lively and inclusive campus environment while fostering cultural awareness, environmental consciousness, teamwork, and a sense of belonging among all participants.

2.Objectives of the Programme

- Preservation of Cultural Heritage: To preserve and promote the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and regional identity of Telangana among students.
- Promotion of Unity and Inclusiveness: To foster unity, harmony, and mutual understanding among management members, faculty, non-teaching staff, and students through collective celebrations.
- Cultural Awareness: To create awareness about the significance of Bathukamma, traditional folk practices, songs, floral arrangements, and Dandiya celebrations.
- Environmental Awareness: To encourage appreciation of nature and seasonal medicinal flowers associated with the festival, promoting environmental consciousness.
- Community Building: To strengthen interpersonal relationships, teamwork, and a sense of belonging among members of the institution.
- Holistic Student Development: To provide students with opportunities to participate in cultural activities, express their talents, and develop social and collaborative skills.

3. Dignitaries Present

The celebration was graced in presence of the following dignitaries and members of the college management:

- Sri. B. Hanumanth Rao – Hon. Secretary SNVPMV
- Mrs.Sandhya Deepala – Hon.Treasurer, SNVPMV
- Dr. A.V Srikanth – Governing Body Member, SNVPMV
- Dr.B. Harika – Principal, SNVPMV
- Dr. K. Neelima – Vice Principal, SNVPMV
- Dr. T. Mamatha – Dean-Evaluation, SNVPMV
- Dr. N. Srinivas – Director, SNVPMV

Their presence added significance to the occasion and encouraged the students and faculty to participate enthusiastically in the festive activities.

4.Saraswathi pooja:

Saraswati Pooja was performed on 16 October 2026 at Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya (Co-Ed.), as part of the Bathukamma celebrations. The pooja was conducted with devotion to seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswati, the deity of knowledge, wisdom, and learning. Faculty members, students, and dignitaries participated in the pooja, creating a spiritually enriching atmosphere. The ceremony highlighted the importance of knowledge, education, and wisdom in academic life and added spiritual significance to the festive celebrations, fostering a sense of devotion, unity, and cultural harmony among the college community.

5. Bathukamma Celebrations

The celebrations began with the preparation of Bathukamma, the traditional floral arrangement that represents the cultural heritage of Telangana. The faculty members collectively prepared the Bathukamma with great enthusiasm and cooperation, reflecting the spirit of unity and teamwork.

Following the preparation, Saraswati Pooja was performed to seek the blessings of Goddess Saraswati, the deity of knowledge and wisdom. Faculty members, students, and the dignitaries participated in the pooja with devotion.

After the pooja, the Bathukamma celebrations commenced. Students, faculty members, and management representatives gathered together and participated in traditional Bathukamma festivities. The atmosphere was filled with joy, cultural pride, and enthusiasm as everyone celebrated this cherished festival.

The celebrations continued with the traditional Bathukamma pooja, during which prayers were offered with devotion. The event concluded with the immersion of Bathukamma, carried out by the faculty members, marking the completion of the traditional celebrations.

6. Dandiya Night

Following the Bathukamma celebrations, a lively Dandiya Night was organised by the third-year B. Pharmacy students. The event took place from 4:00 PM to 7:00 PM and added a vibrant and entertaining dimension to the festivities.

Students and faculty members participated enthusiastically in the Dandiya celebrations. Students from first, second, third, and fourth-year B. Pharmacy, as well as Pharm.D and even M Pharm joined the event, creating an energetic and joyful atmosphere. Faculty members also participated and enjoyed the evening alongside the students.

Refreshments were served to the participants at approximately 5:30 PM. The celebrations continued until 7:00 PM, with everyone enjoying the music, dance, and festive spirits. The Dandiya Night provided a wonderful opportunity for students and faculty members to interact beyond the classroom and strengthen their bonds as members of the college community.

7. Outcomes of the Event

The Bathukamma celebrations and Dandiya Night achieved the following outcomes:

- Cultural Awareness: The event helped students appreciate and preserve the cultural heritage and traditional values of Telangana through the celebration of Bathukamma.
- Unity and Teamwork: The collective preparation of Bathukamma by the faculty members and the active participation of students and management promoted teamwork, cooperation, and unity.
- Spiritual and Cultural Enrichment: The Saraswati Pooja and Bathukamma Pooja provided an opportunity for participants to seek blessings and celebrate the festival with devotion.
- Student Engagement: The Dandiya Night encouraged students from all four years of B.Pharmacy and Pharm.D to participate in extracurricular activities and showcase their enthusiasm.
- Faculty–Student Interaction: The celebrations strengthened the bond between faculty members, students, and the college management by providing an opportunity to interact in a joyful and informal environment.
- Organizational Skills and Leadership: The successful organization of Dandiya Night by the third-year B. Pharmacy students encouraged leadership, coordination, planning, and teamwork among the students.
- Stress Relief and Recreation: The cultural activities, music, and dance provided a refreshing break from academic routines and contributed to a positive and enjoyable campus atmosphere.

Overall, the event successfully promoted cultural appreciation, student participation, teamwork, and a sense of belonging within the college community.

8.Impact of the Programme

The Bathukamma Celebrations and Dandiya Night contributed to creating a vibrant, inclusive, and culturally enriching campus environment. The programme provided a platform for students and staff to celebrate Telangana's traditions while strengthening community bonding and a sense of belonging to the institution. It also encouraged appreciation of nature and traditional practices, supporting the institution's commitment to holistic education, cultural preservation, and the overall development of students.

7. Conclusion

The Saraswathi pooja- Bathukamma celebrations and Dandiya Night at Sarojini Naidu Vanitha Pharmacy Mahavidyalaya (Co-Ed) were conducted successfully with active participation from the college management, faculty members, and students. The event beautifully combined the traditional values of Bathukamma with the excitement of Dandiya, promoting cultural appreciation, unity, teamwork, and togetherness.

The collective efforts of the Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, the third-year B.Pharmacy students, faculty members, and the college management contributed to the success of the programme. The celebrations created joyful memories for everyone and strengthened the spirit of unity and cultural harmony within the institution.
