FINE ARTS CLUB

REPORT ON PAPER FLOWER BOUQUET MAKING ACTIVITY

Date	Saturday, 24 October 2026
Participants	B.Pharm First Year – Section B students
Organised by	Fine Arts Club

Introduction

The Fine Arts Club of Sarojini Naidu Vanita Pharmacy Maha Vidyalaya (Co-Ed) conducted a Paper Flower Bouquet Making Activity for the B.Pharm First Year, Section B students on Saturday, 24 October 2026. The activity provided students with an opportunity to explore their creativity through paper craft and floral design.

Objectives

The activity aimed to encourage creativity and artistic expression, develop craft-making skills, promote patience and attention to detail, and foster teamwork and collaboration among students.

Description of the Activity

Students took part in designing and making flowers and bouquet arrangements using coloured paper and simple craft techniques. They folded, shaped, rolled, and assembled paper into a variety of floral forms, experimenting with colours and arrangements to create attractive bouquets, The photographs from the session show students working individually and together, as well as the colourful handmade creations produced during the activity.

The session offered a refreshing creative experience alongside academic learning. Students had the chance to share ideas, help one another, and turn simple materials into decorative handmade pieces.

Outcome

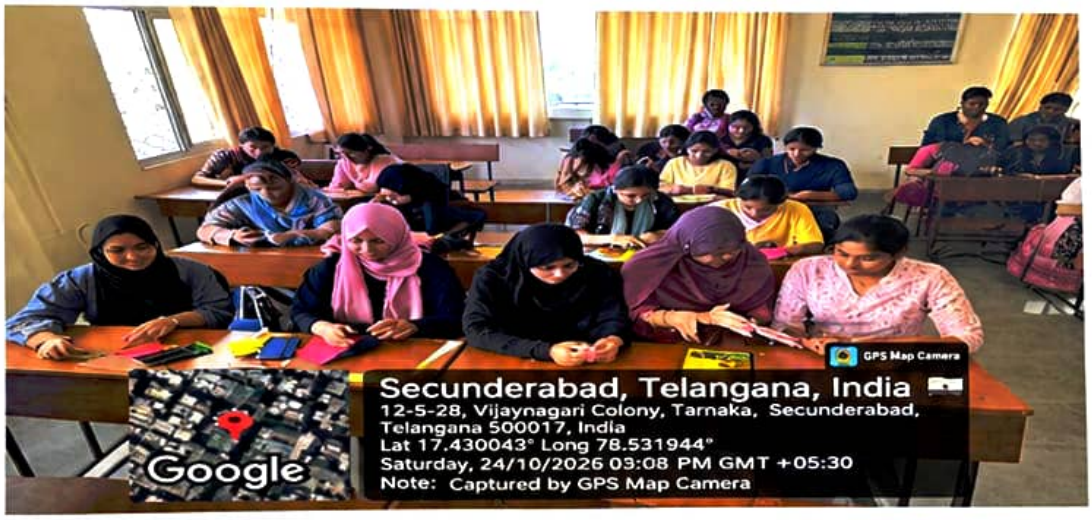

The Paper Flower Bouquet Making Activity was conducted successfully, encouraging students to explore their creativity and artistic talents. Students developed practical skills in paper crafting, colour coordination, flower designing, and bouquet arrangement. The activity also helped improve their patience, concentration, hand-eye coordination, and attention to detail. Furthermore, it promoted teamwork, cooperation, and the sharing of ideas among students. The colourful handmade flowers and bouquets reflected the students' enthusiasm, imagination, and active participation.
